Dear Professor Pollis:

We have completed our declassification review of the documents on Cyprus originally presented to the Congressional committees, and I am enclosing a copy of one document for your retention. This item, USIB-D-15.2/127 of 28 February 1975, was listed in my letter of 6 July 1977 as item #7, a document denied for release in its entirety. However, I am now able to send you a sanitized version of this document. Certain portions have been deleted under exemptions (b)(1) and (b)(3) of the Freedom of Information Act. Maj. Gen. Jack E. Thomas, USAF (ret), Special Assistant to the Deputy to DCI for Budget and Evaluation, is the official responsible for the deletions.

The remaining documents cannot be released, even with deletions. I am listing them below, and alongside each is the appropriate exemption from the Act which gives the reason why the item cannot be released.
